TESTIMONIALS.

BLEEDING PILES.—I had the pleasure of giving a pot of "THILUM" to a lady patient for piles having been cured by my Assistant that he had derived great benefit from its use when suffering from bleeding and painful hæmorrhoids. It gave him instant relief and the cure followed, and I am happy to say that the remedy has proved equally efficacious in the case of the lady I refer to.

Geo. WILKIE, Medical Practitioner.
Moulmein, 23rd December, 1880.

FOR PAINS IN THE LEGS, BACK, &c.—I consider Henry's "Thilum" one of the best remedies I have ever used. It cures Itch as I have proved by trial among the boys and girls of our Mission. After careful trial I can recommend Henry's "Thilum" for pains in the legs, arms, back, sores and Itch. It is by far the best ointment I have ever used for these diseases.

D. DOWNIE, Missionary Amer. Bap. Teloogoo Mission.
Nellore, 23rd October, 1880.

NEURALGIA.—I thank you very much for the "Thilum," it cured my wife of exceptionally severe Neuralgia pain in the face. The trial among the natives soaring for her perfect rest, prior to its use, long absent.

NUTRITIVE EXTRACT OF MEAT.

THIS liquid preparation is the only extract of meat that should be given to invalids. Being a liquid, and containing no enclosed air, it is perfectly free from that mawkish flavour which characterizes the solid commercial article made in South America. The meat from which it is made is subjected to the most rigid personal inspection in our Laboratory while being cut up, reduced to pulp by machinery, boiled repeatedly, and the resulting juice after being rendered translucent by filtration is evaporated by steam till a concentrated extract is obtained. In this form it is a pure solution of the soluble principles of Meat, and possesses a sustaining and a soothing effect upon the sick far exceeding that of any other preparation.

Its absolute purity is guaranteed.

SPECIAL SH

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 25.

CONSOLS in London yesterday were still unaltered at 100⅞, French Rentes at 119¾, 3½ per cent. Indian Sterling Loan at 102⅜, Enfaced Rupee Paper 85½ for Fours, 91¾ for Fours-and-a-half.

Copper-braziers come £1 per ton higher at £71, Yellow Metal has advanced from 5⅝d. to 6d.

Coffee and Cocoanut-oil are unchanged. Linseed and Rapeseed are without alteration. Wheat is firm and 6d. per quarter higher, to arrive in London.

Piece-goods in Manchester, Reuter says, are firm in tone, but that higher prices seriously check business. Quotations as given by Reuter mark an advance of 1¼d. in Shirtings and ⅜d. per piece in Madapollams and Jacconets, while Twist is quoted ⅛d. per lb. lower.

Cotton in Liverpool yesterday closed steady, sales 10,000 bales, and to-day quiet, sales 7,000 bales. Prices are unaltered on the spot, as also to arrive; and in New York also quotations are the same, both ready and forward.

We subjoin our usual comparisons of the weekly figures, which show a decrease since last Friday of 70,000 bales in the total visible supply and of 18,000 bales in the Liverpool stock. With the former, however, 400,000 bales over last and nearly a million bales ahead of the previous year, there is nothing like any scarcity of cotton to be apprehended, and so long as the accounts of the growing American Crop are favourable, prices are not likely to improve, unless perhaps for the better descriptions of Americans. Surats certainly have little in their favour at present, the supply being larger and the demand smaller than during the past two years.

The American Crop figures to date give the following comparisons :—

	1881.	1880.	1879.
Week's Receipts	22,000	22,000	5,000
" Exports to U. K.	21,000	36,000	13,000
" " to Continent	12,000	9,000	3,000
Total Receipts since 1st Sept...	5,600,400	4,811,600	4,407,500
" Exports to U. K. "	2,570,600	2,387,000	1,984,700
" " to Continent "	1,672,700	1,247,900	1,375,000
" Stock in the Ports	380,000	299,000	193,000
Saturday's Receipts	4,000	2,900	2,000

The visible supply of Cotton for all Europe on the 23rd instant shows as follows, against the corresponding date of the two previous years :—

	1881.	1880.	1879.
Total supply of all kinds..	2,510,000	2,115,000	1,597,110
" " " Surats	581,000	569,240	466,150

For the U. K. only the figures are :—

Stock in Liverpool	388,000	784,190	635,610
" London	51,000	52,180	45,650
American Afloat	110,000	176,000	54,000
E. Indian "	110,000	160,000	180,000
	1,159,000	1,172,370	912,260
Price of Mid-Uplands	6 3-16d.	6d.	6¾d.
" Fair Dhollera	4½d.	4 15-16d.	5 7-16d.
Difference..	2 1-16d.	1 13-16d.	1 7-16d.

EXCHANGE.—The market for sterling to-day opened firm, at the highest closing rates of yesterday, and the Calcutta advices coming strong the tendency here continues upward. The Banks seem all willing sellers for future delivery, and at the moment there is every indication of higher rates being reached, although it is difficult to say why. We quote :—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 7 23-32d.	per rupee.
Do. telegraphic	1s. 7 11-16d.	"
Do. 3 months' sight	1s. 7 13-16d.	"
Credits, 3 " "	1s. 7 29-32 to 15-16d.	"
Documents, 3 " "	1s. 7 15-16d.	"
Francs, 3 " "	2 10⅞	"

On Calcutta we still quote demand at 1-16 per cent. premium ; 60 days' sight ⅜ per cent. discount.

GOVERNMENT PAPER has been stronger again with a better enquiry. Fours have recovered to Rs. 104½ and Fours-and-a-half to Rs. 111¾.

SHARES are scarcely so active, although on the whole firm. Bank of Bombays have advanced to Rs. 770. Press Companies are firm. Spinning and Weaving Mill Companies are very steady, and in some cases Rs. 5 to Rs. 10 higher. Port Canning Land shares have advanced to Rs. 220.

COTTON to-day has been practically a blank so far as fresh export business goes, and prices are unaltered at Rs. 190 for good Dhollera and Rs. 184 for good Oomra. Reports are current of some speculative transactions having already taken place for next March delivery at Rs. 192 for Good Oomra, and Rs. 210 for Good Broach, but they require confirmation. If correct at all we fancy they are merely transactions betwixt native speculators with a view to establishing quotations.

SEEDS and WHEAT show no quotable change.

FREIGHTS are quiet at previous rates. Trieste and Venice tonnage is offering very freely, and relets are to be had at almost any rate.

PIECE-GOODS continue as before dull with very little doing, but the rains give somewhat more confidence to the trade. The sale by auction of a steamer cargo of Davison's at Rs. 14 per ton alongside.

The Bombay Gazette

MONDAY, JUNE 27, 1881.

A Gazette Extraordinary is to be issued to-day at Simla, calling for tenders for a loan of three crores of rupees, which will be part of the 4 per cent. loan of 1st May, 1865. Tenders will be opened on the 25th July and subscriptions received in three equal instalments, 8th August and 5th and 26th September. Coupon certificates will be available as well as promissory notes. This loan will probably be taken up at a higher rate than the Indian Government have ever received for their paper. Money is plenty and cheap, and the credit of the country was never better than now. The war is at an end, trade is flourishing, and every department of revenue is making good returns. The receipts from Customs duties for the two months of the official year are 10 per cent. above those of the corresponding months of last year. There is every reason to look forward, therefore, to a high value for Government paper for some time to come. The total debt of the country, if we deduct productive public works, is only 111 crores, which is certainly not a heavy burden for a country with a revenue for the year of 65 crores. We anticipate, therefore, that Major Baring will be very successful in the issue of this loan.

"OUR English Government live on a hand-to-mouth policy. They are very ignorant of these lands. Yet, some day or other, they or some other Government will have to know them, for things at Cairo cannot stay as they are. H. H. will be curbed in and will no longer be absolute sovereign ; then will come the question of these countries." Thus wrote, on the 20th April, 1878, H. E. Colonel Gordon, "Governor-General of the Equator," in reference not merely to the Egypt of the Delta, but to all the countries to which the Khedive laid claim, from the mouth of the Nile to its source in Lake Nyanza, nearly three thousand miles away. Since Chinese Gordon penned those words, "H. H." has not only been "curbed in," but packed off, bag and baggage, to join the riff-raff of refugee kinglets, and the "some other" Governments are talking of "these countries" with all the interest of intending heirs. It is utter nonsense to suppose that the Khedive of Egypt can turn to any good account the many territories, some of them magnificently fertile, which Baker Pasha, and after him Chinese Gordon, were commissioned to administer. The best of all judges on this point, Gordon himself, has scouted the very idea a hundred times over in those brief, graphic, shrewd, scrappy letters of his, which have been recently collected in a volume and published by De La Rue & Co., of London. His contempt for the Egyptians, from the Cairo Pasha to the drummer boy at Khartoum or Gondokoro, is huge and unmitigated ; what can be expected from a Government whom a stupid, under-bred savage, like King John of Abyssinia, bullies with impunity ? We suppose it is the foreign protectorate of Egypt which blinds the public eye to the truth of Colonel Gordon's unflattering estimate of the Egyptians. Take away the joint Comptroller-Generals, and the Commissioners of the Debt, and in less than six years the condition of Egypt will become as hopeless as ever it was in the darkest days of Ismail Pasha. In a word, then, Egypt proper, the Soudan, and the Province "of the Equator," is destined to become the spoil of rival European nations : at this very moment—and the general tone of the French and Italian newspapers leaves no room for doubt on the point—the possession of these territories is as much an object of ambition to the two powers alluded to, as that of India was once upon a time to France and England, or that of the debateable Turco-Persian border-lands to "the divine figure from the north." The idea of a new period of conquest and colonization in the Red Sea countries has not yet fixed itself, so to speak, in the public mind ; but to those who study the subject it is as definite as can be, and clear as day. The Italian occupation of Assab, and the new French settlement of Okhob, show that the process has already begun. It has been said that these are commercial speculations only, with no political significance. As if the tiny, green corn-blade counts for nothing, because one does not see it waving breast-high heavy with golden grain.

For the immediate, ostensible purpose of commercial intercourse with Abyssina, and the independant territory round Lake Aoussa, no better sites could be chosen than Assab and Okhob. The latter is perhaps the more favourably situated of the two, being at the end of the narrow inlet which runs in from the Aden Gulf to within fifty or sixty miles of the lake. Assab, however, is in a better position for commanding the narrow strip of territory between the sea and the Abyssinian frontier. But we cannot suppose that even for commercial purposes the French and Italians would contentedly limit themselves to Abyssinia and the Aoussa country. Enterprising companies cannot but look to the inland territories, between the Victoria Nyanza on the south and Khartoum on the north, whose splendid but forlorn fertility has been celebrated by Baker, Gordon, Schweinfurth, and the Englishman Petheriell, who, in 1853, was one of the first to become acquainted with the condition and the capabilities of the equatorial regions. The descriptions which these authorities have given us of the more southerly portions of the equatorial province—the contrasts between the country as it might be, and the country as the slave-hunters have left it—remind us strongly of the melancholy accounts which Grodekov, Pet

THE NAGA DISTURBANCE.

CALCUTTA, JUNE 26.

The Englishman states that the Government are determined not to interfere now in the Soma Naga raid unless the raiders cross the boundary which is considered probable. SERIOUS DROUGHT IN MYSORE.

BANGALORE, JUNE 26.

The season prospects throughout Mysore are gloomy in the extreme. Fears are generally entertained of an almost entire failure of the crops. In the Hoshkote Taluq, Bangalore, the paddy crop is withering. In Kolar, the standing crops are withering, and a large tract of land remains unploughed from want of rain. Great difficulty is experienced in procuring drinking water. In Tumkur want of rain is felt. In the Mysore district prospects are critical, and prices rising. In the Hassan district, paddy, ragi, and other crops are in a backward condition owing to continued absence of rain. The crops are withering in Hassan Taluq, and prospects there are very discouraging.

THE Simla Fine Arts Society intend to open the fourteenth annual exhibition on the 17th of September next. Colonel F. C. Maisey is Honorary Secretary.

THEIR Excellencies the Viceroy and Lady Ripon have subscribed Rs. 700 in aid of the Building Fund of Christ Church, Simla.

MAJOR-GENERAL ANDREW MACINTIRE, C. B., R.A., has left Madras for England, the term of his command of the Hyderabad Subsidiary Force having expired a fortnight ago.

MR. J. W. D. JOHNSTONE, Assistant Professor, Government College, Lahore, has been offered, and has accepted, the appointment of Head-master of the Mayo College, Ajmere..

A CALCUTTA paper hears from Krishnaghur of an agrarian outrage, in which Mr. MacNaughten, of Neechindpore Factory, Nuddea, was the victim. A dispute arose about the measurement of some lands, and Mr. MacNaughten went himself to the spot, and appealed to the ryots whether they would object to his re-measuring the land himself. Instead of meeting him in the spirit he thus showed, they fell upon him, and there was a great uproar. The case is under investigation by the officials of the district.

THE Bill proposed by the Government for dealing with coolie emigration to Assam, although not entirely a new measure, will not, it is said, embody to any extent the ideas enunciated in the draft Bill of the Commission which sat last cold weather.

REGARDING a paragraph that we published the other day with reference to an approaching "marriage in native high life," and the divorce obtained by the gentleman from the ties of a former union, the Bombay Guardian states:—"We understand that the divorce above referred to was obtained before the party had embraced Christianity, when the Native Converts' Act could have had no application, and that the validity of the divorce has been recognized in highest quarters."

RUPEES eighty thousand have been collected in Behar on account of the Patriotic Fund. But the Maharajahs of Durbhanga, Hutwa, and Betia each subscribed Rs. 20,000, and Syad Wilayet Ali Khan, of Patna, contributed another Rs. 7,000; so that, a Calcutta contemporary remarks, there is a balance of Rs. 13,000 only as a subscription for the whole of the rest of the province, including, as it does, a body of landholders not inferior in wealth to any similar body in India.

THE Simla Building Committee have resolved on building thirty cottages for the accommodation of clerks whose salaries do not exceed Rs. 200, as soon as sites can be obtained. Each cottage will contain four rooms and two bath-rooms. We believe the building of similar small cottages in Bombay would be a paying speculation. Small and comfortable houses, at anything like a small rent, would always find tenants.

THE inhabitants of Cochin have presented a petition to the Dewan praying for an early and complete reorganisation of the police. The Cochin thieves, who are said to be very numerous, appear to have been having a good time of it lately, in spite of the fact that "the principal merchants, who have valuable property stored in their warehouses, are obliged to keep a special set of watchmen, at great expense, to patrol the streets at night." The rogues, who are "chiefly Moplahs of the scum of the community," we are told, "gamble all the day long, and at night break into warehouses, private dwellings, or indeed any other place where they think it likely they can secure something, and retire with their booty, without the slightest hindrance from the police authorities."

THE appeal filed by the New Dhurumsey Spinning and Weaving Company from a decision of Mr. Justice West—awarding Mr. Munchersha Bezonjee, their late Secretary, Rs. 18,000 as damages for wrongful dismissal, with his costs of the suit—was on Saturday last dismissed with costs by the Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Melvill. To all interested in the mill industry of Bombay the case was invested with considerable collateral importance from the insight it afforded into the pernicious system of life-commissions granted to the secretaries, treasurers, and agents of many of the local mills, which has been clinging like a mill-stone round their necks from the very birth of the industry. It was also expected that the revelations made in the case would open the eyes of shareholders to the way in which their interests were looked after by the agents, and to the relations which should subsist between them in future if it was intended that their properties should thrive more to the advantage of the shareholders than of the agents. Their Lordships thought that the present litigation, which had extended over nearly a year, was due to the Dhurumsey Company's having done that which, they believed, was never done out of Bombay, namely, that Cassumbhoy Dhurumsey had been appointed secretary, treasurer, and agent for life, and that Merwanjee Framjee and Co. had been appointed agents for twenty-five years, at enormous commissions. Mr. Justice Melvill knew of an instance where a native firm were appointed agents to a mill company, in which the period of agentship was not only to run for the life of an individual, but as long as there was a member of the firm living. In their Lordships' opinion it was impossible to expect that any concern bound down to such agents could flourish. Mr. Inverarity, who had ably argued the case on behalf of the company for four days, spoke of an intention to appeal to the Privy Council, but the Chief Justice remarked that, in his opinion, there was no point of law to appeal upon.

THE Civil and Military Gazette's latest news from Kabul is not re-assuring. "The Ameer is believed to be growing more unpopular than ever—he had little popularity to start with—and the severe punishments he is known to have inflicted on unfaithful Sirdars do not appear to have had any deterrent effect. We are assured that a plot against the Ameer's life was formed by Mahomed Afzul Khan, son of Abdul Karim Khan. The Sirdar, we are told, intended to waylay the Ameer on the latter's expected visit to Kandahar or Ghazni, and that the plan was made known to some of Ayoub's followers. It is even said that Ayoub himself was in the plot, and that a letter had been sent to him on the subject by Mahomed Afzul Khan. This letter, we are told, came into the possession of the Ameer, who compared the seal and handwriting with those of other documents belonging to the accused. In any case, Mahomed Afzul Khan is reported to have been beheaded. His two brothers, Musa Jan and Shuhan Jan, are said to have been put under surveillance."

THE same paper states that the reinforcements reported to be on their way to Kandahar from Kabul are three regiments of infantry, which were despatched quite recently. The same paper further remarks:—"It would be interesting to know the exact measure of success which the Ameer has attained in his recruiting efforts. A statement has been sent to us, which is perhaps very fairly accurate:—Six regiments of infantry and four of cavalry. They receive, we are told, eight rupees a month—some of them more—exclusive of a liberal allowance of atta. There is no doubt that recruiting is being pushed on vigorously. The increased pay has stimulated the loyalty of a good many."

A CONTEMPORARY states that, notwithstanding his claims to distinction in connection with valuable official work during the late campaign, the knighthood conferred on General Greaves has no reference whatever to India. "We believe that the knighthood, the bestowal of which has occurred simultaneously with the distribution of the Afghan rewards, formed the subject of a strong recommendation in General Greaves's favour, as long ago as the summer of 1879. The K. C. M. G. has been given to General Greaves for service in New Zealand, Ashanti, and Cyprus. He is gazetted as late 'Chief Secretary and Chief of the Staff in Cyprus.'"

BENGAL appears to be getting more rain than it wants. An official report from the Hooghly district, dated Saturday last, says that some of the seedlings had suffered from the rain; and adds "a fortnight's dry weather would now be very beneficial." In parts of the Nuddea district there had been too much rain, though no actual damage had so far been reported. In Jessore the indigo was injured by the excessive rainfall; the crops on low lands had suffered from the same cause. In Furreedpore the sugar-cane and paddy in some parts had been damaged. In the 24-Pergunnahs "considerable damage had been done to the crops by excessive rain."

WE extract the following from an article in the Indian Mirror, a leading native paper of Calcutta, on the subject of Babu Nishikant Chatterji's letter (which we published a day or two ago) upon Russian designs on India:—"The Government would do well if it ordered translations of it to be made in the various vernacular languages of India, and circulated widely in every part of the Empire, so that every native may be enabled to see, in the light of a countryman's personal experiences, the marked contrast between the beneficence of British rule and the brutal despotism of Russian autocracy. It is true that we often complain of isolated acts of the Government of India as arbitrary, oppressive, or unjust; but we must not forget that the Government of India, though animated by the free spirit of the British constitution, has, since its establishment, been deeply infected with the taint of Eastern despotism. But in its worst and most blameable acts the Government of India has always treated its subjects with a tenderness, a justice, and a liberality, such as are, perhaps, utterly inconceivable to the Russian mind. It would be far better for us, if India, with its whole population, were submerged in the ocean, or swallowed up by an earthquake, than that the Empire should pass from the gentle hands of the British Monarch to be trampled under the crushing heel of the unrelenting Autocrat of all the Russias. A knowledge of the real state of things in that vast Empire, if more generally diffused, would be efficacious in curing the crude conceptions of our less reflecting youth as to the true character of British rule in India. The value of the service Babu Nishikant Chatterjee has rendered both to the Government and the people by publishing his personal experience of Russian rule can hardly be exaggerated."

THE friends of Colonel Holdsworth, who left Allahabad some time ago in a very precarious state of health, will be glad to hear that he has arrived safely at home, and had on the whole benefited by the voyage. Colonel Holdsworth, the Allahabad paper states, has been visited by Dr. Gull, and received from him a somewhat favourable opinion of his case.

THE Bombay Guardian publishes the following note from Rev. Dr. Thoburn, Calcutta, 20th:—"The open air preaching case was decided to-day. The order of the Commissioner of Police was declared illegal, and the missionaries were discharged. The bench of magistrates was composed of two Europeans, one Mahomedan, and one Hindoo, and they were quite unanimous in their decision. The Government prosecutor talked of making an appeal, but it is extremely doubtful that he will do so. Meanwhile preaching will be resumed at once, and it will probably be many days before it is interrupted again by a police order of this kind. There are many rumours afloat, one of which is credited in well informed quarters, to the effect that the Governor General has expressed a strong disapproval of the course pursued by the authorities. Another rumour gives the Lieutenant-Governor credit for opinions not unfavourable to the preaching. In due time a correct history of the whole affair may be written, but just at present there is a certain amount of mystery hanging over it, and no one can tell with certainty what was the inspiration of the anti-preaching movement. In the mean time, it is enough for us to know that the restrictions have been swept away, and that the gospel has again found a free course, in Calcutta."

THE Calcutta correspondent of the Pioneer writes, re this case:—There is one circumstance about the result of this trial which is worthy of reflection—namely, the costs of the trial. In a case such as this the only thing that a magistrate can do for the triumphant party is to order compensation to be made him to the amount of Rs. 50. The costs of the missionaries in the present case must have amounted to nearly twenty times the sum, or considerably more than ten times as much, putting them at the very lowest figure; and it certainly does seem extremely hard on men who are not proved to have done anything contrary to the laws, but, on the contrary, are practically exonerated from the charge of having acted contrary to the law, that they should be called upon to pay so large a sum out of their own pockets. True, there are five of them, and Rs. 150 a-piece does not sound a great deal, nor is it to the majority of people, I daresay; but still, that they should have to pay anything is wrong, considering they have not been proved guilty. It does not make the matter any better even if, as is probable, their friends should pay the money for them.

MACMILLAN'S QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON ELEMENTARY LOGIC.*

IN his preface to this little work, Mr. Macmillan says that the object of the exercises which he has framed is to give the student the means of supplementing his lectures by private study. Any student, he observes, who finds that logic is his weak point, or who finds its problems interesting, would be glad to exercise himself in the subject by answering questions, if he were not deterred by the fact that most logical books only give lists of questions without pointing out the questions. In Mr. Macmillan's book the answers are given immediately after the questions, and the author advises the student first fairly to attempt the solution of the difficulty, and, after writing down the results of the attempt, to compare it with the answer given in the text. But most students, we are afraid, will read his solutions first and then work at the problems themselves. The author, however, has admirably carried out the object he set before him, his treatment of the subject being based throughout on Fowler's Logic, which he follows closely. Much praise is due to Mr. Macmillan for the pains he has taken to collect his excellent series of examples and the thorough way in which the solutions are worked out, and the book will, without doubt, be exceedingly instructive to those who know how to use it. Of course, it would have been beyond the strict scope of this little work to refer to the symbolic treatment of Formal Logic, as seen, for instance, in Jevons' books, but we confess we should have liked to see some at least of Mr. Macmillan's examples worked out in the symbolic notation. Students of logic will find Mr. Macmillan's work most acceptable, and we cordially recommend it to their notice.

THE GAIETY THEATRE.

AN excellent entertainment was given at the Gaiety Theatre on Saturday evening, by Mr. Norville, with the assistance of some clever amateurs. There was a large audience, and they appeared to thoroughly appreciate the manner in which each part of the varied and interesting programme was carried out. The performance opened with the one act farce, the "Steeplechase." The comical complications and witty dialogue provoked much laughter. Captain Melliss as Mr. Tittums was the life and soul of the piece, and his endeavours to extricate himself from a trying and difficult situation very clearly showed that his talent for comedy is of a high order. Mr. George Norville's representation of Alderman Slowcoach was an able one, and Mr. Barber's impersonation of the sporting Dr. Clipper was meritorious. Mr. Reid made a very good sheriff's officer; and as a waiter and a "boots" Mr. Hanning and Mr. Devon deserve commendation. Mrs. Norville appeared to great advantage, as Mrs. Tittums, and Miss Violet Vivian successfully represented Mrs. Clipper. After the farce, there was a short vocal and instrumental concert, the greatest share of which was undertaken by the capital band of H. M.'s 4th (King's Own Royal) Regiment, under the direction of Mr. Curry. The programme was as follows:—Operatic Selection, "The Pirates of Penzance," band 4th Regiment; ballad, "Good bye, Sweetheart," Mr. Norville; ballad, "The First Love," Miss Violet Vivian; vocal waltz, band, 4th Regiment; song, "Home of my Heart," Mr. Norville; grand march, "Silver Trumpets" duet, "The Sailor Sighs," band, 4th Regiment, Mr. Carr and Mr. Penrose; waltz, "Chantilly," band, 4th Regiment. This programme having been gone through in a creditable manner, the performance was brought to a close with the laughable farce, "Kill or Cure." Major Cowper's representation of Mr. Brown, a sporting publican, was simply perfect, and caused intense amusement. Mrs. Norville's impersonation of Mrs. Brown was exceedingly good. The other characters in the farce were—Mr. Mildman (a commercial traveller); Mr. Hanning; John (an ostler), Mr. Geo. Norville; and an apothecary, Mr. Devon. The whole entertainment was very successful, and we hope that before long another of the same character will be organised.

STAFF CORPS DEFENCE FUND.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—I beg to hand you Rs. 50, and shall feel much obliged by your transmitting the money to "Field Officer," with a request that it may be credited to the Staff Corps Pension Fund, and that, if my name has not already been enrolled as a member, it may be now entered as a SUBSCRIBER.

II.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—It is very gratifying to find from the letters and circular which have lately appeared in your columns, that something is really being done to represent the Staff Corps grievances. There are a few points that I would like to bring to the notice of "Field Officer," and through him of the Home Committee. One is, that if the scale of pensions proposed in the circular be carried out, and no additional pension allowed for each year in the proposed intervals, an officer of 24 years' service retiring would be worse off than he is now, as he would get only £250 a year, instead of the £282 allowed under the present rules. I would therefore suggest that the present intervals of four years for increase of pension should be adhered to,—viz., 20, 24, 28 and 32 years' service—and that the new scale of pensions should be as follows:—

£250	a year after 20 years' service
£365	" " 24	"
£730	" " 32	"

I think also that some extra pension should be given to those officers who can claim Colonel's allowances after 38 years' service; this is capable of "actuarial calculation" of which the Home Committee make a strong point.

RAINFALL.—From a return of rainfall registered at Pali, it appears that up to the 23rd June 1 inch 50 cents of rain fell there.

Grimault & Co.'s Guarana owes its curative virtues to the great quantity of caffein which it contains. Dr. Wilks, of the Guy's Hospital, declares in the British Medical Journal that the Guarana acts "like a charm."

RECENT INVESTIGATIONS OF PARSEE ANTIQUITY.—A lecture on the above subject will be delivered by the Rev. Dr. Murray Mitchell in the Town Hall, to-day (Monday), 27th June, at 5-15 p. m. The lecture is open to the public.

CARRYING EXCESS PASSENGERS.—Mahadoo Rama and Lahdoo Collia, tindals of native craft, were on Saturday last fined, respectively, Rs. 5 and Rs. 10 by Mr. C. P. Cooper, for carrying a greater number of passengers in their vessels than they were licensed to carry.

BREACH OF SHIP DISCIPLINE.—Elias Mahomed and seven other native seamen, of the steamship Siam, were on Saturday last sentenced by Mr. C. P. Cooper to two weeks' rigorous imprisonment for absenting themselves from that ship without leave or any reasonable excuse, they being articled seamen of that vessel.

THE S. P. C. A.—The following is the report of cases prosecuted by the agents of the Bombay Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals during the week ended the 25th inst:—Bullocks, sore neck 33, lame 6, emaciated 5, overloaded 8; horses, diseased pastern 1, broken knees 2, warned and discharged by the magistrate 2. Total number of cases, 57; amount of fines Rs. 111.

SUICIDE.—A coroner's inquest was held on Saturday last at the J. J. Hospital, on view of the body of Govind Showdass, aged twenty-two years. Deceased was servant to a dealer in tiles, and in consequence of his master threatening to prosecute him for theft he took a quantity of opium, and died from its effects shortly after admission into the hospital. The verdict was, "that the death of the deceased was caused by opium which he voluntarily administered to himself."

ROMAN CATHOLICS AND CHOLERA.—A correspondent writes:—The devotion entertained by the Roman Catholics towards St. Sebastian as a powerful mediator against every kind of plague was manifested by the large congregation who assembled in the Dabul Church on Sunday morning last. The Rev. Vicar officiated at the service, and his co-adjutor Rev. Fernandes preached on the efficacy of devotion to, and the unfailing protection of, the Saint. The choir of trained and amateur musicians who gave their services for the occasion did full justice to the music of Simens Mass No. 2. Miss Ethovides de Souza, a girl of eleven years, was especially noticeable as a soprano singer. Two bands were in attendance and played some hymns during the procession. This ceremony, the first of the kind since the appearance of cholera in Bombay, was concluded by the benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

THE THEFT OF ORNAMENTS AT KHETWADY.—Manockjee Heerjeebhoy was on Friday evening last arrested by Mr. Inspector McDermott and Jemadar Wassedew Mahadowjee in a house on the Falkland Road, occupied by Rungrow Suddasew. He was at the time in the act of endeavouring to melt the gold and silver ornaments, which he had stolen from Sorabjee Nowrojee, and which were of the aggregate value of Rs. 2,064. Manockjee Heerjeebhoy and Rungrow Suddasew were on Saturday last charged before Mr. C. P. Cooper, prisoner No. 1 with stealing the gold and silver ornaments, and prisoner No. 2 with voluntarily assisting in disposing of and concealing the property, knowing the same to have been stolen. Prisoner No. 1 admitted the truth of the charge against him, and was convicted upon his own confession and sentenced to eighteen months' rigorous imprisonment. There being not sufficient evidence against prisoner No. 2, he was warned and discharged.

FEAST OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS.—The following paragraph has been sent to us:—This feast was celebrated with great solemnity on Friday last in the Church of our Lady of the Rosary, Mazagon. High mass began at 6-15 a. m. The Rev. Hale, the secretary to H. C. Bishop of Bombay, sang the celebrant. Aiblinger's mass was sung and played by the band of St. Cecilia's Society. In the evening, there was preaching by his Lordship the H. C. Bishop; solemn procession and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Tantum Ergo by Nava was sung and played (full orchestra) with much effect and credit by the pupils of the above mentioned society, and at the conclusion the band struck up one of the liveliest marches by Schmuck. Great credit is due to Mr. Diogo V. D'Souza, the present preceptor of the society, for the zeal and interest he takes in the training up of his pupils. During the procession, and at the termination, there was a grand display of blue and other variegated lights, which added much to the effect of the proceedings of the evening.

THE KHETWADY PARSEE SCHOOLS.—On Saturday evening, prizes were distributed to the successful students of these schools by Dustoor Jamaspjee Minocherjee. It appears from the report read by the proprietor, Mr. Muncherjee Cowasjee Kootar, that the schools are entirely self-supporting, that the income barely covers the expenditure, the students' fees being so low as 8 annas or 4 annas for each boy or girl, that some Government grant was necessary to enable him to provide more efficient means of instruction. After the report was read, the girls sang some songs. One of the results of the late religious reform movement is that the girls of the school are taught, not only the elements of the Zoroastrian religion, but also the Zend language, in which the holy books of the Parsees were originally written. Some questions on the subject were put to the girls, who generally gave ready answers. Dustoor Jamaspjee, in the course of a few observations, expressed himself much gratified by the progress of the schools, and dwelt upon the advantages of giving religious education to children. He also remarked that the girls should, in addition to sewing, knitting, &c., be taught the humble, perhaps, but highly useful and honourable art of cooking. After a vote of thanks to the chairman, the meeting separated. Some specimens of wool-work executed by the girls were exhibited, which were really very creditable, and were much admired.

DEATH OF A PARSEE MERCHANT.—Mr. Jamsetjee Cursetjee Batliboi, the founder of the well known Batliboi family, died at his residence on Malabar Hill on Saturday last, at the ripe age of 76 years. Commencing life as a humble godown-keeper, Mr. Jamsetjee, by dint of perseverance, energy, and activity, rose to the position of a broker to the well-known firm of Messrs. Edward, Bates and Co., which connection he kept up with credit to himself and advantage to the firm for nearly half a century, and amassed a fortune. During the share mania time, when the general commercial morality was so lax, Mr. Jamsetjee had, by his strict integrity, so far gained the confidence and good regards of Sir Edward Bates, the head of the firm, that the old Baronet named one of his many ships "The Jamsetjee Batliboi" in honour of his Parsee friend and co-worker, and at the present day a life-size oil-painting of the venerable old gentleman may be seen at Sir Edward's business-place in Liverpool. The late member for Plymouth points out to his English friends the likeness of, as he says, one of the few honest natives he came across in India. Numerous friends followed the remains of the old merchant to the Towers yesterday morning. The deceased leaves behind him two sons, Mr. Cursetjee and Mr. Framjee Batliboi, both engaged in mercantile pursuits, and a large number of grandsons and daughters and great-grand children, numbering in all upwards of fifty-five.

HIGH COURT.—JUNE 25.

(Before the CHIEF JUSTICE and Mr. Justice MELVILL.)

SALE AND PURCHASE OF AN EQUITY SUIT.

RUSTOMJEE BURJORJEE VS. KESSOWJEE NAIK.

THE Advocate General, instructed by Messrs. Tobin and Roughton for the plaintiff, applied that exceptions to the Master's report in this equity suit be heard before two judges with a view to save the costs of an appeal. If the matter were heard before one judge, the learned counsel felt almost sure there would be an appeal. The crucial matter in the suit was whether or not there had been an adjustment. The case had been a great many years in the Master's office, had been once before the court, and once before the Appeal Court, and the evidence, the learned counsel believed, was more voluminous than that in any other case which had ever come before the court. The Master had found that there was an adjustment. The plaintiff was a partner of the defendant in a China firm.

The Chief Justice remarked that there was a difficulty in getting two judges now; the weather being so bad they became indisposed.

Mr. Lang.—The suit has been bought, and the plaintiff has nothing to do with it. Assuming that your Lordship decides that it should be heard before two judges, there is a question of extra cost. It is a pure question of fact, and not a difficult question either. The parties had been fighting since 1865, and an enormous mass of evidence had been taken which was irrelevant. The Advocate General thought there would be an appeal if the case was heard before one judge; but there was no probability of an appeal. Nusserwanjee Ardisir Wadia, the purchaser of the suit while the suit was in the Commissioner's office, deserved no consideration. The defendant required security for the extra cost of copy proceedings if the suit was to be heard before the judges.

The Advocate General guaranteed the payment of extra costs; and it was arranged that the case should be heard on Fridays and Saturdays before the Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Melvill after the appeal cases now on the board had been disposed of.

IMPORTANT TO THE MILL INDUSTRY.

MUNCHERSHA BEZONJEE VS. THE NEW DHURUMSEY SPINNING AND WEAVING COMPANY.

THIS was an appeal from a judgment of Mr. Justice West given in November last in favour of the plaintiff and respondent, who claimed Rs. 60,000 damages for wrongful dismissal from the office of secretary in breach of a covenant for twenty-five years' service. The Advocate-General and Mr. Lang, instructed by Messrs. Hearn, Cleveland, and Little, appeared for the plaintiff and respondent; and Mr. Inverarity and Mr. Jardine, instructed by Messrs. Crawford and Beevey, for the defendants and appellants.

Mr. Inverarity, in continuing his remarks on behalf of the appellants, said that, with reference to the entry of Rs. 19,000, he would make a few more remarks whilst reading the evidence of the Mehta Khimjee Thakersey, who had told a deliberate lie in his examination-in-chief. There were two other points on which the defendants justified the plaintiff's dismissal. One was the receipt of sookhree, not the recognised sookhree or percentage generally deducted by merchants, but the regular black-mail levied by the plaintiff who went to different persons and demanded and obtained the payment of handsome sums of money. The receipt of ordinary sookhree from brokers seemed to be a recognised institution. The other point which Mr. Inverarity relied upon was the plaintiff's indecent abuse of his masters—the agents as well as the directors—behind their backs in the presence of clerks in the office. Those were the points on which the defendants had been allowed to give evidence; and the learned counsel submitted that any one of them was sufficient to justify the plaintiff's dismissal. But there were other points regarding which defendants were not allowed to give evidence. There were items of Rs. 1,250 and Rs. 2,080 in the suspense book which had been paid by plaintiff to Cassumbhoy in fraud of the company, and which were discovered after the hearing of the case commenced; but which Mr. Justice West declined to admit in evidence, refusing to allow a supplemental written statement to be filed or to adjourn the case for the purpose of calling evidence regarding the items. Another point on which the defendants were not allowed to give evidence was that set out in the pamphlet published by them, namely, the plaintiff's bribing a clerk in the Secretariat office, named Pereira, to disclose Government secrets which were useful to Cassumbhoy Dhurumsey. The defendants found that their servant was guilty of a criminal offence, they would be justified in dismissing him from their employ. In speaking as to the amount of damages, the learned counsel said the plaintiff expected to get the Dewanship to the Rana of Porebunder; and considering the possibility, the probability of the company not lasting twenty years, the possibility of the plaintiff not lasting twenty years, the learned counsel argued that the damages awarded were excessive. And considering that the plaintiff had imported falsehood into the case, as Mr. Justice West himself found, he was not entitled to his costs which Mr. Justice West had awarded him. The fact that the plaintiff was found, by Mr. Justice West himself, to have brought a grossly false charge against Mr. Nusserwanjee Merwanjee Panday, who was alleged to have asked the plaintiff to conceive an "indirect profit" which the agents might make, was an additional reason for disentitling the plaintiff to his costs. The plaintiff, Mr. Inverarity argued, was guilty of the most open, unblushing perjury; and it would be holding out a premium to perjury if he was allowed the whole of his costs.

The Chief Justice (to Advocate General.)—What do you say as to costs?

The Advocate General submitted that the question of costs should be left to the discretion of Mr. Justice West. The learned counsel read passages from Mr. Justice West's judgment with a view to show that the learned judge was of opinion that the defendants, the agents, had been mulcted to as much as, if not more than, the plaintiff. The reason why the plaintiff was found making false statements was his being pressed to give answers as to occurrences which took place as far back as six or ten years ago. The learned making it a success, especially in respect of the training of the native youths attending it; and the results which have followed his efforts elsewhere, to train youths and men of this country in the mechanical arts, prove that any failure at Seebpore will be attributable, not to shortcomings on his part, but to the character of the material with which he has now to work. The Lieutenant-Governor cannot help hoping that when the students see their complaints formulated as they now are in your letter under reply, they will be overwhelmed with shame at the frivolous, childish, and unmanly grounds which have been brought forward on their behalf as sufficient excuse for their insubordinate conduct.

6. Foolish, however, as the students have been, the Lieutenant-Governor does not consider them so much to blame as those older and irresponsible advisers, who have been from the outset encouraging them in insubordination, and urging them, by specious flattery and exaggerated professions of sympathy, into the belief that they were by their attitude of disobedience maintaining a sound principle, and showing a proper spirit of independence. The students will by this time, it is hoped, have realized that they have been made tools of by persons desirous of converting a school dispute into a great question of race antagonism; and they will in future appreciate at its true value the advice of such false friends which has all but led to the permanent ruin of their educational and professional prospects, and gone far to deprive them of the sympathy of those Europeans who are most interested in native progress.

7. It is mainly in view of the fact that the students have been thus ill-advised and misled that the Lieutenant-Governor feels himself able to entertain their present application for pardon. The wording of that application is, however, far from being either sufficient or satisfactory. As pointed out by you, there is no reference to the gravest and most positive act of insubordination—the refusal to submit to your order of the 3rd May last. Still the Lieutenant-Governor is willing to believe that the act of submission is meant to be absolute and complete, and he will not attach undue importance to mere verbal omissions. He is ready, therefore, to accede to your proposal that those students who have specifically withdrawn their names from the original memorial should be re-admitted to the College in November next, on their personally expressing to the Principal, in the presence of Mr. Fouracres, their regret for their conduct in failing to obey your orders of the 3rd May, and tendering their apologies to Mr. Fouracres for the frivolous and groundless complaints made by them against that gentleman.

8. The effect of this re-admission in November, under the proposals made in paragraph 41 of your letter (which have been accepted), will be that each student will lose six months' time. The conduct of the students in so long failing to avail themselves of the opportunity you offered them of withdrawing their names from the joint memorial submitted to you, renders any more favourable arrangement impossible. They have so broken into the course of this term's instruction that it has become impossible for them to take up again their places in their classes, or to pick up lost ground before the commencement of the vacation on the 15th of August.

9. You have fully explained in your letter that the accommodation provided at Seebpore for the native students was avowedly of a temporary character. The students themselves were well aware of this from the first. At the same time the Lieutenant-Governor has no hesitation in saying, from personal observation, that the bungalows are very much more comfortable and healthy than the quarters which the majority of the students of the colleges and schools of Calcutta have to occupy. Much has been said in the native press of the injustice of making over to the students of European origin the "palatial buildings" bought from the Bishop's College, but it must be remembered that the bulk of these boys were transferred from an existing school—the Dehree School:—that they had to be provided for at once; that it was not at first intended to provide any large amount of accommodation for native students, as great doubts were expressed regarding the probability of their entering the College as boarders. The question which had to be settled before the opening of the College was, whether the Dehree lads should be at once located in the empty buildings designed for the Christian students of Bishop's College, then standing empty, or whether they should be placed in the bungalows formerly occupied by the native converts of Bishop's College, the dormitories being left empty on the chance of native students wishing to come as boarders to the Engineering College. It seems to the Lieutenant-Governor that there can be no doubt as to the proper answer to be given to this question; and yet a cry of race antagonism and favouritism to the Europeans has been raised, because the Christian quarters were not kept for possible native students, and the native quarters given to Europeans. The European rooms are altogether unsuited to native habits, and native ideas; and, after all, the accommodation provided there is of the most unpretentious character—four students occupying one small room. It would have been quite impossible to mix the European and native students up in these rooms, and still less feasible to arrange for messing them in a common hall. The only course possible was adopted. The Europeans were placed in the old dormitories with their hall and chapel under the same roof. The native students were placed, as they joined, in very commodious and comfortable bungalows; and other temporary bungalows were run up for them, as required, until it could be determined what permanent accommodation was necessary, and of what character it should be.

10. The Lieutenant-Governor has visited the native students' quarters, and found them very comfortable, and orders will be issued in accordance with the requests of the students for a few petty alterations. In the meantime, he personally examined the country round the College with the officers of the Public Works Department, and at a great expense took up a large plot of new land for the future permanent accommodation of the native students. The land has only just been made over, and Dr. King, of the Botanical Gardens, and Mr. Fouracres, have prepared a careful plan for laying it out, improving and planting and draining it. The students were well aware of the intention of Government to provide them with permanent accommodation of an improved character; and their complaints on this score are, therefore, altogether unjustifiable and ungrateful. Any way, as you have shown, Mr. Fouracres is in no sort of way responsible for the accommodation provided by Government for the convenience of native students desiring to reside on the College premises. If the boys did not like residing in the College, it was perfectly open to them to live in lodgings of their own procuring elsewhere. The number of native students remaining, even after the recent secession, and the readiness with which the vacancies could evidently have been filled up, would have warranted the provision at once of the proposed permanent accommodation for this class of students. The Public Works Department will accordingly be instructed to take the work in hand as soon as possible.

11. In order that the reasonable wants and wishes of the native and other students of the College might be readily known and considered, the Lieutenant-Governor appointed a Board of Visitors on which several leading native gentlemen kindly consented to act. The Board should endeavour, in future, to meet at the College at least once a month, and you should submit the names of additional members for appointment, so that the monthly meeting may take place without imposing any irksome liability on individual members, many of whom are at times absent from Calcutta.

12. The Lieutenant-Governor does not consider it right that Mr. Fouracres, whose feelings have naturally been deeply hurt by the conduct of the native students, should be burdened with the care of their boarding arrangements in future. These will remain under the direct charge of the Principal, who will see that the strictest attention is paid to all rules and regulations. Any student failing to conform to these, or evincing the least spirit of insubordination, should be at once dismissed from the College.

13. In conclusion, I am to request what you will convey to Mr. Fouracres the assurance of the Lieutenant-Governor's entire confidence in him, and his sympathy with him under the annoyance caused him by the malicious and totally unfounded charges brought against him by the students for whom he has done so much. His Honour feels assured that Mr. Fouracres will not allow this ingratitude in any way to affect the energy and the intelligent interest which he has always hitherto shown in the welfare of the College and the Workshop; and is convinced that in time these young men will learn thoroughly to appreciate the advantage which it is to them to be placed under such an able and kind hearted instructor.

FOREST CONSERVANCY.—Theoretical lessons are to be given at the Dehra Dun Forest School, in the coming autumn. There will be two courses, one extending over some three months, chiefly for apprentices and such probationers of the Forest Department as may be permanently stationed at the School; and the other, extending over about one month, chiefly for officers of the superior staff and for probationers not attached to the school. Mr. Baden Powell and Dr. Schlich will both be present at the latter course, and will give lessons in Forest Law and Forestry respectively; while Mr. Duthie, of the Saharunpore Gardens, has been specially engaged to each botany. The object of the present proposal is, we understand, to make a beginning in theoretical teaching at the school, where at present it is mostly practical. The scheme is thus a tentative one, undertaken with a view to ascertaining how the teaching can best be directed in a profitable groove.—Pioneer.

UNWHOLESOME FOOD.—A correspondent writes to the Civil and Military Gazette, Lahore:—What authority or what department in Lahore is entrusted with the duty of seeing that none but wholesome articles of food are offered for sale in the bazars and public streets? Does this duty belong to the Deputy Commissioner, the Municipality, the Civil Surgeon, or any sanitary officer? Have the police anything to do with the matter? Are there any European Inspectors charged with the duty of examining the meat, vegetables, fruits, &c., that are exposed for sale in the Sudder Bazar, and in the city, and having all that are not wholesome destroyed?

That dire scourge, cholera is in our close vicinity, and yet the greatest supineness appears to exist on the part of our officials in regard to sanitary and preventive measures to keep so dread a visitor from our midst. A boy with a basket of melons for sale was on the road with me this morning one of the melons rolled out of the basket and burst as it fell on the road, the contents of the shell ran out in a fermented mass, which had so sickening a smell that I hastened from the spot as fast as my legs could carry me. I called the boy to me, when I had reached a safe distance from the poisoned atmosphere, and on looking into his basket found that all the melons it contained were like the one that had just burst on the road, the shells were inflated with gas generated by the fermented pulp inside—a pea-soupy, unwholesome mass, which natives will swallow because they can obtain it at half or one quarter the price of the fresh sound fruit—the natives call it ghoolla, i. e. melted, or liquified. To whom was I to hand this boy over? If I made him over to the policeman who was airing himself at his post close by, or even if I took him to the Kotwallie, he would have released me as soon as my back was turned. I simply kicked the basket and its contents off the road, threatening the boy with the direst punishment if he again hawked such stuff about for sale, and determined to bring the matter to the notice of the public through your columns. Cholera is no respecter of persons; if it is allowed to enter our quarter, even those who live in cooled houses, and on the best and choicest food, will be liable to fall victims to this fatal disease.

We owe it to truth to state that all the physicians who have prescribed to their patients Grimault & Co.'s Indian Cigarettes are unanimous in telling that their effect in asthma, chronic catarrhs, and inflammation of the mucous membrane of the nose, palate and bronchies is most surprising.—Vienna Medical Gazette (Austria).

BILLIARDS.

On Monday May 30, one of the most interesting matches of the year took place, in which D. Richards, the present aspirant for Championship honours, and W. Mitchell, of spot-stroke fame, took part. The latter has not appeared before the public in a money match since he suffered defeat at the hands of Jno. Roberts, jun., and W. Cook in succession. After these events, and, indeed, during their decision, Mitchell was very ill, and it was thought that a long time would intervene ere he took up the cue to do battle for a big stake again. Early in the present year, however, he made one in a tournament at the Aquarium, and during its progress he met T. Taylor in a semi-private match, spot-stroke barred, at a well-known city club, in which he had to suffer defeat. It was generally conceded, however, that the Sheffielder exhibited unexpected cleverness at the all-round game, and this probably encouraged his riends eventually to accept the cartel thrown down by D. Richards during the progress of the Aquarium Tournament in February last. For the event under notice Mitchell underwent a careful preparation and did some big things during practice, notably making some surprising runs on the spot, which on a Championship table were at one time considered impossible. It will be remembered that Richards has during the present spring twice scored a victory. On the first of these occasions he met Fred. Shorter, who has already challenged Jos. Bennett for the Championship. Odds were laid on Shorter, and it looked anything on him for the first half of the game, as he completed his 500 in the excellent time of 1 hour 45min, at which juncture he was over a century in advance. In the second half of the game Richards pulled up wonderfully, however, and he eventually ran out first by 74 points a feature in his play being a run of ten spot-strokes in one pocket in the forenoon of 5d. Since that event Richards has met H. Evans in a game of 1000 up, in which he allowed the latter 100 start. This took place on March 24, and a peculiarity in the encounter was the fact that only three spots were allowed without an intervening cannon. Richards had a very easy task on this occasion, as he won by 250 points, his best effort being 81. Prior to play in the present match Richards was known to be in rare form. He has been practising assiduously for the engagement, and was stated to have greatly improved in his cannon play, always a strong point in his execution.

The contest took place at the Baynard's Castle, Queen Victoria-street, City, the fine saloon of which hostelry had been fitted for the event, whilst a handsome new Championship table by Messrs. Burroughs and Watts had been set up, the encounter being 1000 up, for 100*l*. aside. There was a good attendance to witness the game, but there was but little speculation on it. At the outset some sums were invested at a slight shade of odds on Richards. Soon after the start, however, Mitchell was installed a favourite, and at one time as much as 4 to 1 was offered on his chance in vain. The play was not striking during the first half, neither men making any big scores. Mitchell did much the best, however, and when the adjournment was called he had arrived at 312 to 345, which gave him an advantage of 167 points. On resuming the scoring was pretty even for a while, but then Richards drew up, and with fine breaks of 60 and 44 passed to the front at 615. In spite of another brilliant effort of 80, inclusive of thirty-two finely-nursed cannons, Mitchell had pagged away into front place again at 867 to 856. He then fell behind once more, and had, in the end, to suffer defeat after a most determined struggle by 37 points.
